

CULTURES OF CARING

Philanthropy in Diverse American Communities

A Special Report

Funded by:

The Ford Foundation

W. K. Kellogg Foundation

David and Lucile Packard Foundation

Council on Foundations

June 1999: Washington, D.C.

Statement of Inclusiveness

The Council on Foundations was formed to promote responsible and effective philanthropy. This mission requires a commitment to inclusiveness as a fundamental operating principle and calls for an active and ongoing process that affirms human diversity in its many forms, encompassing but not limited to ethnicity, race, gender, sexual orientation, economic circumstance, disability and philosophy. We seek diversity in order to ensure that a range of perspectives, opinions, and experiences are recognized and acted upon in achieving the Council's mission. The Council also asks members to make a similar commitment to inclusiveness in order to better enhance their abilities to contribute to the common good of our changing society.

© Copyright 1999 Council on Foundations.

All rights reserved.

The material in this report may not be reproduced in any form without written permission of the Council on Foundations. The authors may revise data or text in subsequent editions.

Council on Foundations

1828 L Street, NW
Washington, DC 20036
202/466-6512
<http://www.cof.org>

CONTENTS

Introduction by Joanne Scanlan _____	1
Native-American Philanthropy: Expanding Social Participation and Self-Determination by Mindy L. Berry _____	29
Reflections on Endowment Building in the African-American Community by Mary-Frances Winters _____	107
Latino Philanthropy: Expanding U.S. Models of Giving and Civic Participation by Henry A. J. Ramos _____	147
Asian-American Philanthropy: Expanding Circles of Participation by Jessica Chao _____	189
The Role of Community Foundations in Establishing and Growing Endowment Funds by and for Diverse Ethnic Communities by Diana S. Newman _____	255

